Fourth Valley Concierge Corporation

Our President, Yohei Shibasaki has been selected by the World Economic Forum as the Young Global Leaders class of 2013

Yohei Shibasaki, President & CEO of Fourth Valley Concierge Corporation has been selected by the World Economic Forum as the Young Global Leaders (YGL) class of 2013 on March 12, 2013.

Details : http://www3.weforum.org/docs/WEF_NR_YGL_NCA13_JP.pdf

YGL is a unique, diverse, global community of the world's outstanding, next generation leaders nominated under the age of 40, who commit to shape a better future in the global society.

This year's class of Young Global Leaders is composed of 199 individuals from all sectors of society (such as NGO, citizen's group, politics, academic, arts, business, and media) from 70 different countries. They went through a rigorous selection process out of a few thousand candidates by a Committee of International Leaders. It is a great honor for our President Yohei Shibasaki, to be selected as one of them.

◆Comment from our President

It is a great honor to be selected as Young Global Leaders 2013. I would like to commit myself to help solve the problems that the world faces today with innovative methods together with my fellow YGLs. I will keep devoting myself to establish Fourth Valley Concierge as a global company to be able to support and provide dream and hope to the young talents worldwide.
